Lord Robert Baden-Powell's Farewell Message

Dear Scouts:

If you have ever seen the play "Peter Pan" you will remember how the pirate chief was always making his dying speech because he was afraid that possibly when the time came for him to die he might not have time to get it off his chest. It is much the same with me, and, so, although I am not at this moment dying, I shall be doing so one of these days and I want to send you a parting word of good-bye.

I have had a most happy life and I want each one of you to have as happy a life, too.

I believe that God put us in this jolly world to be happy and to enjoy life. Happiness doesn't come from being rich, nor merely from being successful in your career, nor by self-indulgence. One step towards happiness is to make yourself healthy and strong while you are a boy so that you can be useful and so can enjoy life when you are a man.

Nature study will show you how full of beautiful and wonderful things God has made the world for you to enjoy. Be contented with what you have got and make the best of it. Look on the bright side of things instead of the gloomy one.

But the real way to get happiness is by giving out happiness to other people. Try and leave this world a little better than you found it and when your turn comes to die, you can die happy in feeling that at any rate you have not wasted your time but have done your best. "Be prepared" in this way to live happy and to die happy --stick to your Scout Promise always--even after you have ceased to be a boy--and God Help you to do it.

VENTURING · BSA

Venturing Code

As a Venturer, I believe that America's strength lies in our trust in God and in the courage, strength, and traditions of our people. I will, therefore, be faithful in my religious duties and will maintain a personal sense of honor in my own life. I will treasure my American heritage and will do all I can to preserve and enrich it. I will recognize the dignity and worth of all humanity and will use fair play and goodwill in my daily life. I will acquire the Venturing attitude that seeks truth in all things and adventure on the frontiers of our changing world.

State of the District

Scouting in Mesa continued to thrive in 2003! Nearly 4,700 dedicated volunteer leaders contributed countless hours to the more than 10,000 young men actively participating in the 688 Cub Packs, Scout Troops, Varsity Teams, and Venturing Crews that make up this great District. Consider the following highlights from 2003!

Advancement

3,712 progress awards and 683 Arrow of Lights earned
3,417 rank advancements earned by Scouts
14,812 merit badges earned
338 Scouts have earned the coveted Eagle Scout Award

Activities

Over 85% of Mesa troops participated in a long-term camping experience
Over 1,000 Cub Scouts attended a Day Camp or Cub Resident Camp
Over 2,000 Cub Scouts made a car and raced in the Pinewood Derby
Over 400 Cub Scouts drove in the Cubmobile Derby

Leadership

Over 100 Scouts attended a Council Junior Leader Training Course
Over 1000 adult leaders attended an Adult Leader Training Course
Over 750 leaders received continued training at Monthly Roundtables
The year 2004 holds great promise as we strive to reach out and serve an even greater portion of the city with the Scouting program. With your continued support and leadership, Mesa District will continue as the benchmark example of Scouting in the Grand Canyon Council.

I use to be beaver...and a good ol' beaver too...

Did you know Lord Baden Powell loved to draw? Try capturing the Order of the Arrow ceremony on paper...

The Scout Law is a way of life...

Tell the truth. People can depend on you.

Be true to your family, friends, Scout leaders, school, and nation.

Care about other people. Be a willing volunteer to help others without expecting payment or reward.

Offer your friendship to people of all races and nations, and respect them even if their beliefs and customs are different from your own.

Be polite to everyone regardless of age or position. You know that using good manners makes it easier for people to get along.

You know there is strength in being gentle. Treat others as you want to be treated.

Follow the rules of your family, school, and troop. Obey the laws of your community and country. If you think these rules and laws are unfair, try to have them changed in an orderly manner rather than disobeying them.

Look for the bright side of life. Cheerfully do tasks that come your way. Try to make others happy.

Work to pay your own way and to help others. Save for the future. Protect and conserve natural resources. Use time and property.

Face danger although you are afraid. Have the courage to stand for what you think is right even if others laugh at you or threaten you.

Keep your body and mind fit and clean. Choose the company of those who live by high standards. Help keep your home and community clean.

Be reverent toward God. Be faithful in your religious duties. Respect the beliefs of others.
